MIN GUIDE: BSU ANTHROPOLOGY 2011-2015

Total Amount of Funding Received by Faculty and Staff in 2011-2014: $1,534,930

Average Funding Per Department Member 2011-2014: $109,637

Undergraduate Majors/Minors/Graduate Students: 114/32/26

Undergraduate Students Enrolled in Anthropology Courses 2011-2015: 7,553

Undergraduate Students Participating in Departmental Internships: 15

Peer-Reviewed Articles/Chapters Published by Faculty and Staff in 2013-2014: 36

Graduate School Matriculation:
- Columbia
- Mississippi State
- IUPUI
- East Carolina
- Michigan State
- Purdue
- Lund University
- Manchester
- Durham

Teaching Marketable Research Skills Leading to Employment at:
- IN Dept. of Transportation
- Bureau of Land Management
- Historic Preservation and Archaeology
- National Park Service
VIBRANCY

Applied Anthropology Laboratories

Each semester AAL employs 40 undergraduate students who log over 5000 work hours.

Field Schools - Professional Training

Ethnographic School in Romania
Archaeological: Prehistoric
Archaeological: Historic

---

Immersive Learning

Mark Groover recently completed a student-led project on the 19th century textile industry at Younts Mill. Faculty have also applied for a grant to study issues of race in Muncie.

Interdisciplinarity

Jennifer Erickson is affiliated with the Women’s and Gender Studies Program. Robert Phillips is affiliated with the Jewish Studies Program. Jim Nyce is affiliated with the Digital Health Institute and the Global Health Institute.

---

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Nick Kawa is co-founder of a local community gardens initiative in downtown Muncie.

Homes Hogue is a Board Member for the local nonprofit Gallery 308.

Ron Hicks lectures on the Archaeological Institute of America Tour of Ireland.

Colin Murray, Homes, Hogue, Christine Thompson, and students are collaborating with regional tribes to repatriate native remains and artifacts.

Jim Nyce and Evelyn Bowers are active in the Indiana Academy of Sciences.

Jennifer Erickson is teaching a Muncie-based urban anthropology course.