GRADUATE PROGRAM APPLICATION DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY BALL STATE UNIVERSITY

For your application form to be complete, please attach the following documents:

* Vita (resume) describing your educational background, employment history, experiences in anthropology and/or archaeology, research endeavors, volunteer efforts, professional organization memberships, honors/awards, etc.

* Narrative statement explaining your reasons for wanting to pursue graduate study in anthropology at Ball State and the relationship of such study to your long-term goals. Please limit this statement to three double-spaced typed pages.

Last name	First
Address
Telephone (day)	(evening)
If not, then you n	of the United States? yes no nust apply through the Center for International Programs. Do not m if you are applying to the Center for International Programs.
Indicate the acad	emic year in which you would like to begin studies.
What month/year	did you take the GRE General Test?
Number of credit	hours completed in anthropology courses:
Undergraduate Graduate	Quarter Hrs Semester Hrs
Signed	Date

Note: Remember to attach your resume and narrative statement to this application before mailing. To be considered for an assistantship in the Department of Anthropology, your application must be completed by February 15. Send your application to:

Graduate Admissions c/o Administrative Coordinator Department of Anthropology Ball State University Burkhardt Building 315 Muncie, IN 47306-0435