Summary of the Burris Laboratory School Lottery Timeline
School Year 2013-2014

October, 2012 -	applications available for the non-sibling lottery for students in grades K-12 for 2013-2014 (kindergarten is full-day, no half-day kindergarten offered) (Note: applications for students with high ability are not available until January 7, 2013)
January 2013 –	Letters are mailed to parents asking them to indicate whether or not they will be re-enrolling their student(s) and indicating whether or not there are any siblings in the family that will be seeking enrollment at Burris in the 2013-2014 regular lottery
Friday, February 8–	deadline for current parents to indicate their intent for current students and siblings to enroll for 2013-2014
Tuesday, February 19 –	sibling lottery will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the Burris auditorium
Monday, January 7 –	applications made available for openings for students with high ability in grades K – 12 (kindergarten is full-day, half-day kindergarten is not offered)
Monday January 7 –	the Center for Gifted Studies and Talent Development will begin accepting and processing applications for students with high ability
Friday, March 15 –	deadline for applications for non-sibling kindergarten students
Thursday, March 21 –	the non-sibling kindergarten lottery will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the Burris auditorium
Friday, March 22 –	deadline for applications for enrollment for the 2013-2014 school year as a student with high ability
Friday, April 6 –	date by which parents will be notified if their student(s) meet the criteria for acceptance as student(s) with high ability
Tuesday, April 10 –	the lottery to determine the order of admittance for students with high ability will be held at 2:00 p.m., in the Burris auditorium
Friday, April 13 –	deadline for applications for non-sibling students in grades 1 – 12 interested in enrolling for the following school year
Tuesday, April 17 –	the non-sibling lottery for grades 1-12 will be held at 2:00 p.m., in the Burris auditorium