

CERTIFICATE IN MIDDLE LEVEL EDUCATION

Extend your marketability as an educator with this graduate Certificate in Middle Level Education. This certificate prepares teachers to address the specific and unique needs of adolescents. This 15 credit-hour program can be a stand-alone credential or a supplement to your master's degree. This program is offered entirely on-line.

This online certificate will:

- ✓ Prepare you to address the specific and unique needs of middle school students;
- ✓ Help you build a strong support network of middle school contacts throughout Indiana and beyond;
- ✓ Offer increased job flexibility;
- ✓ Allow you to earn graduate credit from a nationally recognized teacher education program.

Overview

This certificate addresses issues pertaining to the elective education of middle school students including:

- ✓ Developmental characteristics of adolescents,
- ✓ Planning & implementing effective instruction for middle level learners, &
- ✓ Facilitating learning environments conducive to academic success in middle schools.

Courses To Complete the Certificate in Middle Level Education:

- ✓ EDCU 630 – The Junior High and Middle School Curriculum
- ✓ EDJH 512 – Instructional Strategies and Approaches in Junior High and Middle Schools
- ✓ EDJH 534 – Classroom Management: Practical Approaches to Improving Student Behavior
- ✓ EDPS 628 – Adolescent Development
- ✓ EDRD 620 – Content Area Reading

For further information regarding the Certificate in Middle Level Education please contact:

Dr. Karen Ford
Program Director of MA in Sec. Ed.
Coordinator of Secondary Ed.
Dept. of Educational Studies
Ball State University
765-285-5460
kford@bsu.edu