Greetings Musicians

At long last it feels like Spring! We have been very busy in the Music Collection, assisting students with term papers and listening assignments. The “Reference by Appointment” service continues to be popular for students needing a little extra help for a term paper or thesis. You can request an appointment online from the “Ask a Librarian” page (https://www.bsu.edu/libraries/forms/referencebyappointment.php) or by e-mailing me at ALEdmonds@bsu.edu

What’s New?

The Music Collection blog now has an index and a search function. Over the years I have attempted to create posts of wide interest, but especially difficult-to-search topics. Links in blog posts go to the CardCat listing for items. This Spring’s topics included old time Hollywood Musicals (the catalog subject is usually “Man-Woman Relationships”) and a list of the most popular operatic sopranos and their roles.

Featured Scores

Piano Music for Ballet Class
MT 950 .O47 P5 2009
There is a definite art to accompaniment for ballet class. The pianist has to have repertoire at the ready for various techniques the students will be learning and for different levels of student ability. This five-volume set is divided in exactly this way, with music for barre exercises and specific steps.

Contemporary Singing Actor
Duets: M1507 .C663 2010
