Greetings Musicians

Whether you are on campus or in far away places, I hope you’re having a beautiful summer. The Music Collection “view” is undergoing a transformation, from a tangled collection of weeds to beautifully landscaped slopes to the windows where students sit, study, and relax. Please take a look the next time you stop by.

The collection has been enhanced by a generous donation of Dover scores, more CDs from today’s top classical and popular artists, and books reflecting top scholarship in all fields of music.

— Amy Edmonds

Circulating Equipment in the Educational Resources Collection

The Educational Resources Collections include a collection of circulating equipment, including portable CD players available for check out. These can be used in the practice room with play-along / sing-along series such as the Aebersold Jazz Play-Along, Hal Leonard Sing-Along, Singer’s Musical Theatre Anthology and many other scores with CD.

You can also check out a portable voice recorder, or a portable DVD player.

Score Donation

This summer we received a generous donation of over 120 scores of standard repertoire, including many Dover reprints. Some of these are additional copies, to expand opportunities for group study. Others are new to the collection. We greatly appreciate the generosity of the donor.

Subject Guides

There is a new guide for Music Theory plus updates to the other guides. From the Subject Guide Page: http://bsu.libguides.com/welcome

Singer’s Musical Theatre Anthology: 16-bar Audition
ML 1507 S5661 A13 (Soprano)
ML 1507 S5651 A13 (Mezzo/Belter)
ML 1507 S5671 A13 (Tenor)
ML 1507 S5641 A13 (Bari/Bass)

Musical theatre singers use 16-bar versions of popular musical theatre songs, edited to show the voice to the best advantage, during the brief time allowed during auditions. This series will help students prepare for their all-important auditions. Each excerpt has a piano accompaniment.

Ashokan Farewell
M 221 J54 A8 1992

is the bittersweet violin music that runs through Ken Burns’ documentary The Civil War. Jay Ungar’s haunting melody has lived on for many years after the series first ran on PBS.

Featured CDs

KZ Music: The Encyclopedia of Music Composed in Concentration Camps
Compact Disc 21627-21636

This 24-set CD series documents the creativity of composers confined in a variety of wartime settings, from 1933 to 1945. Many of these composers were lost to history because of their premature demise. Through research and performance, their creativity comes to life once more.

Beyond representing the artistry of these composers, the series reflects the intellectual atmosphere of the early 20th Century. Atonal, jazz, folk and musical theatre styles mixed together in the camps of Eastern Europe and in this series.

Chimes of Freedom: The Songs of Bob Dylan is a 4-disc set of his songs sung by other musicians ranging from Johnny Cash to Adele in honor of the 50th anniversary of Amnesty International.
Compact Disc 21564

David Garrett
is a German violinist who bridges classical and rock music styles. His repertoire includes classical masterpieces for violin, covers of rock classics such as “Smells like Teen Spirit,” and his own compositions. He also holds the Guinness World Record as the World’s Fastest Violinist. Check out his CDs:
