You are now ready to be assigned a faculty advisor.

Here’s what you need to know to help you throughout the rest of your college career:

- Shortly after the close of this semester you will receive e-mail notification as to where you can access your new faculty advisor information and DegreeWorks degree audit.
- If you have a hard time reaching your new advisor or need additional assistance, please contact the Upper Division Advising Center Coordinator at 765-285-5490.

- Visit www.bsu.edu/advising for important scheduling dates and advising information.
- Follow the same process for registering for classes each semester. Make sure you register for classes as soon as your time ticket opens.
- Use the Ball State undergraduate catalog (www.bsu.edu/catalog) to help you review your major and minor requirements and course descriptions.
- Learn how to read your DegreeWorks degree audit and interpret your requirements needed to graduate.
- Refer to your major’s 4-year plan each semester to stay on track for graduation.
- Take advantage of the campus resources available to you. You can find information about these resources by visiting www.bsu.edu and clicking on “Current Students”.
- Take confidence in the skills, abilities, and experiences that you have had during your first year at Ball State and build upon them for your next three years.
