

5 MIN GUIDE: BSU ANTHROPOLOGY 2015-2016

We have 7 tenure/tenure track faculty members and a director for the Applied Anthropology Labs supervising 3 professional staff

Total Amount of Funding Received by Faculty and Staff in 2015-2016

$1, 073, 421.00

Peer-Reviewed Articles/Chapters/Books Published by Faculty and Staff in 2015-2016:

20

Our Anthropology major includes applied and archaeology tracks. We also offer a minor and an MA in Anthropology.

Graduate School Matriculation:

Teaching Marketable Research Skills Leading to Employment at:

IN Dept. of Transportation
Bureau of Land Management
Historic Preservation and Archaeology
National Park Service
Carnegie Museum of Natural History
Smithsonian Institution

Undergraduate and Graduate students logged
10, 042 hours in the Applied
Anthropology Lab as paid employees, interns, independent study students and volunteers

IUPUI
Indiana University
University of Illinois
University of Oregon
George Mason
University
University of Missouri
Mercyhurst University

VIBRANCY

Applied Anthropology Laboratories

Each semester AAL employs 40 undergraduate students who log over 5000 work hours.

Field Schools - Professional Training

Ethnographic School in India
Archaeological: Prehistoric Archaeological: Historic

Immersive Learning

Jen Erickson received a $5,000 immersive learning grant to fund an ethnographic field training project for students based on the Riverside neighborhood in Muncie, IN

Award

AAL staff & faculty received the 2016 Ohio State Historic Preservation and Public Education and Awareness Award.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Mark Grover and Chris Thompson received $17,500 from the Ohio Historic Society for a summer historic archaeology field school at the Fort Recovery historic site in Fort Recovery, OH.

Caillin Murray, Homes, Hogue, Kevin Nolan, Christine Thompson, and students are collaborating with regional tribes to repatriate native remains and artifacts.

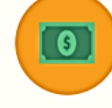

Homes Hogue is a Board Member for the local nonprofit Gallery 308.

Robert Phillips volunteers regularly with Muncie's Men's Shelter.

Caillin Murray completed a student-focused digital ethnohistory research project about Tecumseh, Prophetstown and the Battle of Tippecanoe. The StoryMap will be made available to the public in 2017.

Mark Hill helped establish and raise funds for a student travel grant for the Society of Applied Anthropology.

powered by Piktochart
make information beautiful