Section Two:
Assessment of Narrative Report

NOTE 1: If a deficiency is included in the scope of an FE, the program may not be released from reporting on it in Part II of the Annual Report, except by the FE Team.

NOTE 2: Although an area may be marked “satisfied, no further reporting required,” the next visiting team will still make its own assessment of the program’s response to the deficiency in the next Visiting Team Report.

DEFICIENCIES
Condition 6: Human Resources
The program has made good progress in this area, especially given the economy and the university hiring freeze. The additional staff support for ArchiTreks and the study abroad program is encouraging. Please continue to report on these efforts and the impact of increased enrollment on resources.

Criterion 13.17: Site Conditions
The program has made good progress in this area and should continue to report on efforts to address this deficiency.

Criterion 13.22: Building Service Systems
The program has made good progress in this area and should continue to report on efforts to address this deficiency.

Criterion 13.23: Building Systems Integration
The program has made good progress in this area and should continue to report on efforts to address this deficiency.

Criterion 13.28: Comprehensive Design
The program has made good progress in this area and should continue to report on efforts to address this deficiency.

CAUSES OF CONCERN
Comprehensive Design Studio
The program appears to have made good progress in this area and should continue to report on efforts to address this concern.

Expanding Administrative and Advising Needs
See comments above (Condition 6 Human Resources).
Recruitment and Retention Plan
The program should continue to report on this concern, particularly on the results of the media campaign and on strategies for retention.

Faculty Recruitment
The program is making good progress addressing this concern. Please continue reporting on it.
