The Academy for Community Leadership (ACL) is a ten-week fall program that provides a rich overview of the Muncie/Delaware County community. Participants hear from key local leaders; learn about the community’s history, current strengths, and future aspirations; and connect with civic-minded colleagues from a wide variety of professions.

Offered Thursday mornings, September – November
$300 for Chamber members; $350 for non-Chamber members
More information: Nancy Norris, nnorris@muncie.com

Emergence is Shafer Leadership Academy’s core leadership program offered each spring. Over eight highly interactive sessions, participants receive actionable insights to better understand their particular leadership style and learn ways to communicate effectively, build consensus, manage conflict, build trust, and engage in civic leadership.

Offered Tuesday evenings, April – May
$500 for ACL alums, $700 for non-alums
More information: Mitch Isaacs, misaacs@shaferleadership.com

Companies with engaged employees – those that feel that their work is meaningful and valued – enjoy higher profitability, higher quality of products/services, and higher customer loyalty (Gallup, 2009).

Each employee who participates in corporate community engagement adds an average of $2400 in value to his/her company. (Corporate Executive Board Company.)

Empower your employees with valuable leadership skills and strong community connections!