WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH THIS?
Our teaching majors have pursued careers in:
- secondary education
- teaching English as a second language
- non-profit work
- authoring
- graduate school
- student affairs
- administration
- freelance writing
- publicity
- business
- marketing
- technologies
- social media
- communications
- information systems

TEACHING ENG/LANG ARTS MAJOR
48 Credit Hours
Our students are prepared for careers in secondary school teaching by our dedicated faculty who have taught in public schools and published research on pedagogy.
- Students take content courses both in English and communications as well as courses focusing on the methods and strategies for the classroom.
- Students who successfully complete the program, which includes a semester of student teaching, are licensed to teach English/Language Arts and Communications in Indiana schools.
- Dedicated faculty who have taught in public schools and published research on pedagogy.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

TUTOR CLIENTS
Writing Center
- A place for students and faculty to get feedback and constructive criticism on their work.

TALK TEACHING
English Education Club
- Students gain professional knowledge about how to successfully complete the program.

TEACH KIDS TO WRITE
Creative Writing in the Community
- ENG 409 encourages students to engage in the community, learning benefits of teaching and publishing their work.

CREATE A DIGITAL LITERARY MAGAZINE
Rethinking Children’s Literature Magazine
- A biannual magazine that celebrates diversity with stories from Ball State students, faculty, and community.

MEET WRITERS & EDITORS
Visiting Writers Series
- Throughout the year, writers visit campus to read, sign books, and meet with students.

STUDY OFF CAMPUS
Study Abroad Opportunities
- Explore intercultural issues and study outside of the classroom and around the world.

You can do anything with an English degree.