WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH THIS?
Our rhetoric & writing majors have pursued careers in:
- editing
- publishing
- copywriting
- freelance writing
- publicity
- business
- authoring
- marketing
- non-profit work
- teaching English as a second language
- student affairs
- graduate school
- technologies
- Law School
- social media manager
- communications
- information systems

WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH THIS?

RHETORIC AND WRITING MAJOR
36 Credit Hours

Our rhetoric and writing students are immersed in the theory and practice of discourse, with an emphasis on written forms.
- Develop the ability to write for various audiences.
- Understand the historical and social significance of written communication.
- Interpret and situate texts and strategies.
- Especially relevant for students planning further academic or professional studies.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE
EDIT A SCHOLARLY RESEARCH JOURNAL
Digital Literature Review
- The DLR is an academic journal created by undergraduate students.
- Each year, it explores a theme, such as “Historical Hauntings,” “Freak Shows,” “Human Zoos,” and “Slavery Now.”

MEET WRITERS & EDITORS
Visiting Writers Series
- Throughout the year, writers visit campus to read, sign books, and meet with students.

TELL OUR STORY
PR Internship in English
- Maintain our blog and social media accounts, design promotional materials, and help to build community.

GAIN REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE
Virginia B. Ball Center for Creative Inquiry (VBC)
- English faculty members have taught seminars that produced documentaries, history books, and digital archives.

Building Better Communities (BBC)
- Links Indiana communities, businesses, and organizations with the resources and expertise of faculty and students.

STUDY OFF CAMPUS
Study Abroad Opportunities
- Explore intercultural issues and study your favorite authors outside of the classroom and around the world.

TUTOR CLIENTS
Writing Center
- A place for students and faculty to get feedback and constructive criticism on their work.

CONTACT US
English Department
765-285-8580
www.bsu.edu/english

Cathy Day
Assistant Chair of Operations
cday@bsu.edu

You can do anything with an English degree.