University Libraries

Environmental Studies Cartographic Resources in Ball State University Libraries

The GIS Research & Map Collection on the second floor of Bracken Library includes many resources for researchers studying issues of the environment. The Map Collection includes flood plain maps for numerous areas, topographic maps for areas around the world, soil surveys and maps from counties around the country, Gap Analysis electronic resources for land cover, forest types, and other factors, maps of important farmlands in counties around the United States, natural gas and other energy maps, and national and state park and forest maps.

- AAAS Atlas of Population and Environment, HB849.415.H374 2000, Reference Collection.
- Access to Water: Highway Bridge Projects (map), G4091.E63 1980.I6, GRMC.
