The School of Music Honors Program recognizes students with high scholastic achievement. An Honors Thesis or Creative Project (ID 499) for three hours is required.

Undergraduate students who wish to complete the School of Music Honors Program and who have at least a 3.5 average in music and an overall GPA of 3.25 should apply immediately following the successful completion of MUSTH 212 and MUHIS 200 and the earning of junior standing on their primary instrument. At that time their GPA will be checked and their eligibility determined.

Special Considerations and Restrictions

1. Each student accepted in the School of Music Honors Program will be assigned to a faculty advisor who will serve as the student’s mentor and guide the student through the program.

2. To graduate with School of Music Honors, a student must complete an Honors Thesis or Creative Project. The student must attain a 3.75 GPA in music relevant to his/her specific program, and attain an overall GPA of 3.5.

3. A student approved for the School of Music Honors Program and who has chosen a performance Creative Project must present one recital beyond programmatic requirements. A student approved for the School of Music Honors Program and who has chosen a composition Creative Project must complete a substantial additional project as approved by the student’s departmental faculty honors advisor.

4. The student is responsible for obtaining a Departmental Honors form from the Honors College, to have it signed by the principal faculty member and the Coordinator of Undergraduate Programs in Music, and to return the signed form to the Honors College.

Definitions
