2. Announcements

D., (Next scheduled meeting), I. E. (Results of Constitutional Amendments – Enclosure #3), I.F. (Revisions to University Promotion and Tenure Document – Enclosure #4), I. G. (Revisions to Technology Users Policy – Enclosure #5), I. H. (Approval of Senate Actions), and I.I. (Program Information – Enclosure #6), were reviewed by the Senate membership.

3. Introduction of President Ferguson

The chair introduced President Paul Ferguson who spoke briefly and took questions from the membership of the Senate.

- The president led a discussion group for freshman connections and asked the students to send him a note after the first two weeks of class to let him know how they like their classes and the faculty. He was surprised that many responded stating they loved their classes, the faculty, and their major.

- President Ferguson introduced Julie Hopwood, as the senior advisor to the President and Chief of Staff. Julie has been with him for twelve years and has a background in law, public administration and broadcast journalism. Julie’s function is to extend the office of the president. She is a strategic partner to facilitate issues and bring things together more quickly. She will be chairing the space committee and the strategic planning implementation committee.

- A faculty member asked if President Ferguson had begun to think about spending some time with the departments and colleges. They also hope that besides spending time with faculty, he’ll be able to go in and out of classes to get a sense of the activity within a department.
The president is scheduling visits and plans to visit every department over the next several months. He is very interested in receiving department’s ideas of where we need to go and where we haven’t been. He encourages faculty to send him a note citing what they think the president needs to hear within their department.

- A faculty member spoke about the town-gown issue in Muncie and that it has changed. There is more openness on both sides (city and university). The faculty member believes there are two entities: Ball State and the City of Muncie with a definite divide at the White River (north and south). The faculty member stated that it is unfortunate that individuals believe they don’t have to go “on the other side” and get involved in the community. The faculty member believes there are many more students who want to be involved in the university.

A student member of the senate added that he believes students want to be more involved in the city. The student has seen the community grow together with more students heading downtown for activities. The past weekend offered the opportunity to go to RibFest and there were shuttles in the village taking students downtown. There is more outreach from the city.

Another member added that most of the students at Ball State are first time scholars and do not have optimum college backgrounds. They do not know how to eat, dress, and act professionally. We are not necessarily improving their chances of success if we do not change their lifestyles. We have made a start in offering wellness programs and healthy cooking and eating.

The president responded he believes he hears from the city that there has been progress over the past few years. The challenge is how we think we should specifically improve in the future.

4. Overview of Senate System – Chin-Sook Pak, Vice Chairperson, University Senate. Chin-Sook briefly reviewed the senate system with regard to council responsibilities. She also reviewed the organizational chart and listing of committees under each council’s purview.

5. Recognition of Deaths
There was a moment of silence to honor the lives of Stanley Byers, Philip VanEvery, Dimitri Sotiropoulos, and Winifred Wagoner.

7. Report by Chairperson of Senate – Amy Harden (University Senate Agenda, 8/28/14, Enclosure #7)

8. Questions Directed to the President

9. Question and Answer Period

10. Unfinished Business
There was no unfinished business.
11. New Business
   A. Members of Councils/Committees in University Governance System (University Senate Agenda, 8/28/14, Enclosure #8)

      A motion was made and seconded (Thurman/Kovac) to approve the membership of the councils and committees.
      The motion carried.

12. Other Items
   A. Printing Policy

      The Provost reported Business Affairs has been working on this for many months as an attempt to save money since we will have another budget cut from the State going into effect this academic year. There were studies conducted looking at how much printing and copying we do, as well as benchmarking. There was inconsistent communication to the university community and this is being rectified. Bills received by departments indicating they are in the negative will have no affect this year.

      The Provost introduced Leisa Julian, Associate Vice President, Business and Auxiliary Services, who explained the new policy. She reported the policy has been implemented over the last couple of years by different segments of the university. They started with Business Affairs, then Advancement and Development, and are starting with Student Affairs, working their way through other areas of the university. The service charges which you will pay per impression will be placed in a centralized fund by a third-party entity for ongoing replacement of devices. They are working with areas with high print volume and providing options for cost-saving and sustainability. It is imperative to reduce the number of devices, toner use, and electricity and they have been working through a funding model. There will soon be a live website to review more information. The Provost encouraged input and to send their suggestions through him or Leisa Julian.

      A question was asked concerning taking printers out of offices. The Provost replied this is part of the process. He strongly encouraged faculty to take control of their preferences on the Communications Center. The topic of academic quality will be address through each department’s analysis. He stressed the importance of getting away from what we are currently doing. There will be an opportunity for departments and faculty members to appeal the decision of Business Affairs. Currently, there are approximately 220 different types of devices on campus. This is difficult to manage and make cost effective. Using a centralized platform, it will be easier to assess the type of printers used as well as print volumes and then trying to help departments understand the cost of not being efficient.

      The Provost concluded by saying when we are spending university or foundation funds, the university must be responsible in managing it appropriately. He believes that with flexibility of all parties involved, all needs can be met.

13. Adjournment

   A motion was made and seconded (Caristi/Thurman) to adjourn. The meeting adjourned at 4:45 p.m.

      Respectfully submitted,

      Lisa Pellerin, Secretary

Ball State University
Statement on the Importance of Diversity and Inclusion

Ball State University aspires to be a university that attracts and retains a diverse faculty, staff, and student body. Ball State is committed to ensuring that all members of the campus community are welcome through our practice of valuing the varied experiences and worldviews of those we serve. We promote a culture of respect and civil discourse as evident in our Beneficence Pledge.

At Ball State, diversity is an integral part of our identity. Our success depends on our efforts to cultivate inclusivity within our pedagogical, scholarly, and creative pursuits. Community is an inherent and crucial aspect of such efforts at local, national and international levels. As we recruit and retain a diverse administration, faculty/staff, and student body, we strive to ensure that our students are prepared to engage and succeed in increasingly diverse environments. Our recruitment efforts will continue to include historically underrepresented populations to create the cultural milieu that promotes participation by all.

We are committed to the pursuit of excellence by being inclusive of individuals without regard to race, religion, color, sex (except where sex is a bona fide qualification), sexual orientation, gender identity/gender expression, physical or mental disability, national origin, ancestry, or age. Ball State will be a place recognized for its positive climate—one where all stake holders know that their contributions to the mission of the university are essential to our success.

POLICY ON GRADES

Proposed Revisions

I Responsibility of the Instructor

1. To grade students in accordance with the following grading system.

1.1 The record of student performance in courses of undergraduate level in Ball State University is indicated by the following system of letters: A, B, C, D, and F, FN, and FS. A plus or minus may be appended with the exception of A+, F+, FN+, FN-, FS+, and FS-.

1.2 “A” represents work of excellent quality and is recorded for students who do outstanding work.

1.3 “B” represents work of good quality and is recorded for those who do work which is clearly above the average.

1.4 “C” represents work of average quality and is recorded for students who do average work.

1.5 “D” represents work which is below average, but above failure.

1.6 “F” represents work that is not of an acceptable quality. It is recorded (1) when a student fails a course and (2) when a student drops a course after the twenty-third day of a semester or the seventh day of classes in a summer session, unless, in the judgment of the instructor, the reasons for dropping the course are such that the student should have a “W.” Students who discontinue attending a class for which they are registered will receive an “F” unless they officially (by appropriate signatures) withdraw from the course.

1.7 “FN (Non-attendance)” represents a failing grade awarded to a student who did not attend a course (no completed assignments, no exams, no instructor interaction or other documented engagement in an academically-related activity in the course).

1.8 “FS (Stopped Attendance)” represents a failing grade awarded to a student who did not officially withdraw but failed to complete a course (i.e., did not take a final exam, stopped attending, etc.) and failed to achieve the course objectives. Instructors will be required to enter the last date of academic engagement for a student receiving a grade of FS.

1.9 A failing grade (F, FN, or FS) is recorded when a student withdraws from a course after the published withdrawal deadline for the semester or term unless, in the judgment of the instructor and the college dean, the reasons for withdrawing from the course are such that the student should have a W.

A plus or minus may be appended to the above scale, with the exception of A+, F+, and F-. A plus or minus indicator after the grade indicates quality earned slightly above or below the grading scale.

2. To keep a record of grades for a minimum of one calendar year.

3. To inform the class, very early in the course, the basis on which grades are to be determined.

4. To have information available to a student concerning academic progress throughout the course, insofar as possible.

5. To provide a student with the opportunity to examine and discuss all of the student’s work which has been evaluated by the instructor—tests, papers, reports, special projects, etc.

6. To submit final grades by the published grade submission deadline. It is essential the faculty submit all grades in the period in which they are due and in the proper format. Failure to submit grades to the Office of Registration and Academic Progress by the specified due date will result in the Instructor submitting grades on the Supplemental Grade Report form for each student. Specific and detailed instructions will come directly from the Office of Registration and Academic Progress to all departmental secretaries/administrative coordinators.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE

Proposed Revisions

1. At Ball State University student attendance at class meetings is expected. Faculty shall establish attendance policies for their courses. Such attendance policies must be communicated to students by faculty through course syllabi or outlines.

2. Absence caused by field trips or activities in which the student is representing Ball State University at state, regional, or national events shall be announced in advance to instructors of the other course(s) in which the student is enrolled. Statement on the Importance of Diversity and Inclusion

Ball State University aspires to be a university that attracts and retains a diverse faculty, staff, and student body. Ball State is committed to ensuring that all members of the campus community are welcome through our practice of valuing the varied experiences and worldviews of those we serve. We promote a culture of respect and civil discourse as evident in our Beneficence Pledge.

At Ball State, diversity is an integral part of our identity. Our success depends on our efforts to cultivate inclusivity within our pedagogical, scholarly, and creative pursuits. Community is an inherent and crucial aspect of such efforts at local, national and international levels. As we recruit and retain a diverse administration, faculty/staff and student body, we strive to ensure that our students are prepared to engage and succeed in increasingly diverse environments. Our recruitment efforts will continue to include historically underrepresented populations to create the cultural milieu that promotes participation by all.

We are committed to the pursuit of excellence by being inclusive of individuals without regard to race, religion, color, sex (except where sex is a bona fide qualification), sexual orientation, gender identity/gender expression, physical or mental disability, national origin, ancestry, or age. Ball State will be a place recognized for its positive climate—one where all stakeholders know that their contributions to the mission of the university are essential to our success.
