- Provided an update on Provost Morris: Recovery is going well. Please send any cards to the Provost’s office and they will be sent to Provost Morris. Marilyn Buck is the point person in Provost Morris’s absence.
- The University is in the process of presenting legislative proposals.
- Dedicating Recital Hall to Frank C. and Elizabeth B. Ball

The Interim President responded to the following:
- Concerns regarding open enrollment for health insurance. The system is changing to paperless. Therefore, everyone must elect (or waive) their health and other related benefits for 2017.
- Concern about service personnel having access to computers to register for open enrollment during scheduled shifts
- Maternity leave

7. Question and Answer Period
There were no questions.

8. Unfinished Business
There was no unfinished business.

9. New Business
A. Office of Academic Advising – Request to remove Academic Advising section from Faculty and Professional Personnel Handbook (Enclosure #2)
   Laura Helms discussed this enclosure. She stated it is out of date and not policy based and should be removed from handbook.
   A motion was made and seconded to remove Academic Advising from the faculty and professional handbook.
   Motion carried

B. Awarding of Posthumous Degrees and Certificates (Enclosure #3)
   Jackie Buckrop discussed posthumous degrees and certificates of recognition. This enclosure is to combine both locations of posthumous degrees in the faculty and professional personnel handbook and how they show up in a student’s lifelong record.

   A motion was made and seconded to approve the awarding of posthumous degrees and certificates.
   Motion carried

C. Proposal to change catalog and handbook policy regarding Incomplete grades (Enclosure #4)
   Dan Waechter discussed the proposal to change the catalog and handbook policy regarding incomplete grades. Admissions and credits discovered that an “I” grade reverts to an “F” for Credit/No Credit courses. This is inconsistent with the original grading method.

   A motion was made and seconded to approve the change in catalog and handbook policy regarding incomplete grades.
   Motion carried

To: Kourtland Koch, Chairperson, Senate Agenda Committee

From: Russ Wahlers, Chairperson, Academic Technology Committee

Date: November 18, 2016

Subject: Change to Academic Technology Committee Responsibilities

At its November 14, 2016, meeting, the Academic Technology Committee approved a change to its committee responsibilities with respect to election of the chairperson. The current language as it appears on pp. 31-32 of the Faculty and Professional Personnel Handbook reads:

2.21 To elect a chairperson, who must be an elected member of Faculty Council, and a Secretary from its appointed faculty membership by majority vote for one year terms;

The committee approved the removal of the clause “who must be an elected member of Faculty Council”. The proposed new wording is:

2.21 To elect a Chairperson and a Secretary from its appointed faculty membership by majority vote for one year terms;

Rationale:

While the committee includes two current members of Faculty Council, neither was able to take on another committee chairmanship this year. The committee anticipates that this will continue to be an issue. The committee also notes that Academic Technology is the only Faculty Council committee with this requirement. The exception does not seem to serve a clear purpose.

On behalf of the committee, I request that the Agenda Committee refer this for action.
