Eureka

A fine companion to our funding opportunities resources is the Eureka database. A Ball State University owned and operated system, Eureka organizes research interests and expertise into a database and links this information to funding opportunities. The result is a personalized listing of funding opportunities deadlines which is received via e-mail.

The Eureka notification is drawn from the comprehensive listing of the national Grants Resource Center and is not exclusive to new or modified funding possibilities, as is the Community of Science \(COS\) e-mail alert.

Funding Resources

EUREKA!

Many faculty and professional staff are aware of the benefits of maintaining a Community of Science \(COS\) Expertise Record. A fine companion to COS is the EUREKA! database. EUREKA! organizes research interests and expertise into a database and links this information to funding opportunities. The result is a personalized listing of funding opportunities deadlines which is received via email.

EUREKA! fills a different niche than that of the COS Funding Alert system. COS Funding Alerts inform subscribers of new and updated funding opportunities, whereas EUREKA! alerts subscribers to those grants whose deadlines are approaching. The EUREKA! notification is drawn from the comprehensive listing of the national Grants Resource Center and is not exclusive to new or modified funding possibilities.

To be informed monthly about current grants available in your field, SPO recommends registration with both COS and EUREKA!. New subscribers to EUREKA! may sign up by completing the form below using your Ball State e-mail address.

Please be aware that EUREKA! is for Ball State University faculty, staff and student use only.
