FEES AND EXPENSES

FEES

The Office of Bursar and Loan Administration does not mail paper bills to students. Students must use Cardinal QuickPay at www.bsu.edu/quickpay to view current billing information and may also use Cardinal QuickPay to pay online from a checking or saving account. A Ball State e-mail account is needed to access Cardinal QuickPay.

Ball State University is supported chiefly by legislative appropriations. The fees constitute only a part of the actual cost of student education. Fees charged to meet part of the expenses of the university are described in this section.

The payment of fees, which constitutes part of registration, is completed in accordance with billing dates on fee statements. Registration is not complete until all fees are paid.

The Ball State University Board of Trustees reserves the right to change the fees and other charges for any semester or term.

Description of Fees

The general fee, made up of a contingent fee and a dedicated fee, is used to meet a portion of the cost of the maintenance of the buildings, campus grounds, library, and laboratories. It also pays for student admission to intercollegiate athletic contests and designated lectures, concerts, and entertainments; supports intramural sports and such recreational activities as use of the swimming pools and the student center; and contributes to limited services under the university-sponsored health plan.

Fees are assessed by credit-hour brackets based on the number of credit hours for which students enroll. An additional fee per credit hour is assessed for all graduate courses taken for any type of credit.

Persons 60 years of age and older may enroll for half the normal cost of tuition. This remission does not apply to special fees (see below).

Fees for off-campus registration are assessed per credit hour.

In addition to these costs, special fees and charges are assessed for certain courses and services. A complete listing of fees and other charges is available at www.bsu.edu/bursar or www.bsu.edu/quickpay.

Residency Determination, In-State or Out-of-State Student

Because Ball State University is financially supported by the Indiana legislature, resident students pay less in fees than out-of-state students. Residency status, as determined by Office of the Bursar and Loan Administration in accordance with rules adopted by the Board of Trustees, is subject to change. Your status depends primarily upon the length of time you have lived in Indiana for purposes other than attending a college or university. A minimum residency of one year is required for independent students (not receiving financial assistance or being claimed as dependents by parents or legal guardians on their income tax forms). Copies of the regulations, the Application for Nonresident Fee Exemption, and other information are available at www.bsu.edu/bursar or www.bsu.edu/bursar or www.bsu.edu/quickpay.

Residency Status for Families of Graduate or Doctoral Assistants

The spouses and children of graduate assistants, research assistants, and doctoral assistants will receive resident classification during the term of such assistantships if they are living with the employed person when he or she registers and takes courses at Ball State University.

Application for Admission Fee

Each student new to Ball State University (except auditors and nonmatriculated students) submits a fee with the application for admission ($25 for those who have earned any degree from Ball State, $35 for those who have not earned a degree from Ball State). This amount is never refundable.

Withdrawal Procedures

To withdraw from the university, you must contact the Office of the Student Ombudsperson, Administration Building, Room 238. Any refunds (i.e. financial aid, registration fees) are based on the date when initial contact is made with the Office of the Student Ombudsperson and the appropriate refund schedule. Any refund related to fees paid for oncampus housing and dining will be administered based on the terms of the contract.

Discontinuance or abandonment of classes does not constitute an official withdrawal from all classes.

The only fees that are eligible for a refund are the registration fees, which include the general fees, special fees, course fees, and short term fee. The schedules below are in effect for the academic year 2006–2007. For a current listing please check www.bsu.edu/bursar.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

General Information

- 1. Assistantships shall be academically and professionally valuable experiences, and each assistant should be mentored by a faculty/staff supervisor.
- 2. Departments granting assistantships shall develop policy related to work load, role, responsibilities, and professional conduct for assistantships consistent with Principle 1 (above). These policies shall be reviewed by the college dean and the dean of the Graduate School and be included in public documents describing graduate programs.

Graduate Assistantships

A number of appointments to graduate assistantships are available to qualified master's degree candidates in the various departments during the academic year and a few during the summer if work is available. Graduate assistants receive stipends ranging from $2,000 to $6,000 for the academic year. Stipends for each five-week summer term are 15 percent of the student's previous academic year stipend, if work is available. Graduate assistants also receive a remission of the contingent portion of the general fee, remission of the graduate course fee, and an out-of-state fee waiver. Those holding half-time graduate assistantships pay half fees including the nonresident fee. For detailed information, visit www.bsu.edu/gradschool/assistantships or e-mail the dean of the Graduate School at gradschool@bsu.edu.

Students interested in applying for graduate assistantships should return the Application for Admission to Graduate Study to the Office of Graduate Admissions, indicating that an assistantship is sought in a particular department or area. A transcript of credits should be sent to the appropriate department chairperson by the institution granting the credits. Graduate assistantships cannot be awarded until official transcripts of all previous college work have been sent directly by the institution(s) to Office of Graduate Admissions.

Doctoral Assistantships

A number of doctoral assistantships are available to students who have been admitted officially to the doctoral program by letter from the dean of the Graduate School. Doctoral assistants receive stipends ranging from $3,000 to $7,000 for the academic year. Stipends for each five-week summer term are 15 percent of the student's previous academic year stipend, if work is available. Doctoral assistants receive a remission of the contingent portion of the general fee, remission of the graduate course fee, and an out-of-state fee waiver. Those holding half-time doctoral assistantships pay half fees including the nonresident fee.

A doctoral applicant interested in applying for an assistantship should indicate this on the graduate degree application. For more detailed information, visit www.bsu.edu/gradschool/assistantships or e-mail the dean of the Graduate School at gradschool@bsu.edu.

University Graduate Fellowships

A number of university graduate fellowships are available to qualified master's and doctoral students. These fellowships allow recipients to pursue a full-time course of study leading to an advanced degree with no obligation to the university other than to maintain a high level of academic performance. Fellowships are awarded on the strength of the student's GPA, scores on standardized examinations, and letters of recommendation.

Fellows will be appointed by the dean of the Graduate School on the recommendation of the appropriate department chairperson and with the approval of the appropriate college dean. Approved dossiers should be received by the date during the spring semester designated by the dean of the Graduate School to be considered for the following academic year.

Fellows will receive a remission of the contingent portion of the general fee, the graduate course fee, and the nonresident fee. Fee adjustments will be applicable during the academic time period (usually August–May) of the fellowship award and the summer immediately following. Fellows will also receive a stipend that will be determined by the dean of the Graduate School.

Students interested in applying for university graduate fellowships may acquire information on minimum qualifications and application procedures from their major departments or the dean of the Graduate School, Ball State University, Muncie, IN 47306, (765) 285-1300. The Application for Admission to Graduate Study must be returned to the Office of Graduate Admissions.

Employment

Part-time student employment is available to graduate students. For instructions on how to apply and search for available jobs, visit www.bsu.edu/careers/viewjobs.

A student's spouse who is interested in full-time or part-time employment should write or call the director of Human Resource Services, (765) 285-1834.

Graduate and doctoral assistants will normally not accept outside employment. If a limited amount of outside employment is deemed advisable, such employment must be approved by the department chairperson concerned. If such additional employment is at Ball State University, the approval of the dean of the Graduate School is also required.

Veterans' Benefits

Information on veterans' benefits may be obtained from the Office of Veterans' Affairs, (765) 285-5736.

Loan Programs

To be considered for a Stafford Loan, students must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and must be registered for a minimum of 5 hours each semester during the academic year and a total of 5 hours for summer (can combine summer semester, first summer session, and second summer session.) For more information, please contact the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid at (765) 285-5600 or 1 (800) 227-4017 or online at www.bsu.edulfinaid.

University Libraries

The mission of the Ball State University Libraries is to serve current and anticipated users by providing access to resources intended to satisfy informational needs related to and consistent with the university's teaching curriculum, research mission, and service programs.

The University Libraries, comprised of the Alexander M. Bracken Library and the Architecture and Science-Health Science branch libraries, offer convenient access to more than 1.5 million books, periodicals, microforms, audiovisual materials, microcomputer software, government publications, maps, manuscripts, music scores, archival records, and electronic resources.

Bracken Library, the main library on campus, is open more than 116 hours per week during the academic semesters. The library's arrangement into separate service, collection, and study areas is intended to facilitate access to the various information sources. Library faculty and staff are available in each service area to assist library users.

CardCat, the Ball State University Libraries' Web-based catalog of books, periodicals, and audiovisual materials, can be accessed through the libraries' home page at www.bsu.edu/library.

The libraries' home page also provides access to online journals, indexes to journal articles, connections to Internet browsers, and library information. Assistance finding and using these
