

APPLICATION FOR PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM ADMISSION

Advertising • Journalism Graphics • Magazine • News-Editorial Photojournalism • Public Relations • Teacher Education

Department of Journalism

Please type (or print legibly) and return to the journalism department office (AJ 300).

Before being admitted to a professional program in the Department of Journalism, you must first complete the prejournalism program (JOURN 101, 102, 103, 104 and an appropriate program introductory course) with grades of C or better. This application should be filed with the Department of Journalism during the final semester or term of your prejournalism program. You will be notified of your admission status once all grades have been reviewed.

After admission to a professional program in the journalism department, you are required to complete all required major courses with a grade of C or better.* Prior to graduation, you must complete an exit interview with your program coordinator. The department DOES NOT accept C- grades as meeting minimum grade requirements.

For advertising and public relations majors, credit in ECON 116 or 201 is required.*
