EVANSVILLE, IN (WFIE) -

Peyton Stovall was named athletic director for North High School, effective August 1, during the regular meeting of the EVSC Board of School Trustees.

Stovall has been with the EVSC for one year as assistant athletic director at North and physical education specialist for the Coordinated School Health program.

He also helped coach and tutor North's boys basketball team this past year.

Stovall holds Master of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees in sport administration, with minors in marketing and management from Ball State University.

He is a Registered Athletic Administrator and is a member of the National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association and the Indiana Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association.

Stovall has been an intern with the National Collegiate Athletic Association and served as a graduate assistant while at Ball State in marketing and promotions for women's soccer, basketball, and field hockey; and as a Big Ten promotions street team employee in Indianapolis last year.

Stovall replaces Robert Cuprisin.
