

TCOM 390 INDEPENDENT STUDY

An Independent Study is an academic project completed by a student and supervised directly by a TCOM faculty member.

The intent of an independent study is to complement the course offerings of the department. Independent studies do not substitute for courses offered by the department. Students may earn a total of 6 hours in TCOM 390, but no more than 3 hours in any semester.

ATTACH TO THIS TCOM 390 APPLICATION a short summary of the proposed independent study, including dates of all meetings, assignments, and examinations.

Permission of the department chair is required to enroll in any section of TCOM 390.
