Art and Journalism Building, AJ 401, 765-285-5838

Interim Chairperson: Michael Prater

Director of Master's Program: Kenton Hall

Graduate Faculty: Anderson, Bell, Bower, Carter, Derwenskus, Fillwalk, Gee, Giorgio, Hall, Hannon, D. Johnson, S. Johnson, Minor, Neal, Nelson, Prater, Rarick, Shen, Sum, Williams, Wojcik, Zack

The graduate program in art is based on the department's mission to educate students to develop significant ideas within the discipline of visual arts education and to master the tools and methods of inquiry for creating art. Creating art forms and teaching art are highly individualized activities that require an understanding of the four major activities related to art—perceiving, producing, knowing, and evaluating—that help students understand themselves and the world they live in. Through the visual arts students learn to share their feelings, beliefs, and values.

PROGRAM

Master of art (MA) with emphasis in visual arts studio

The graduate program of study leading to a master of arts degree offers concentrations in the visual arts through studio/education seminars, art history, and advanced studio—ceramics, drawing, electronic art and animation, metals, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, and visual communication. Interdisciplinary programs of study are possible.

Students are expected to develop and refine studio skills, education skills, and academic scholarship to a level of professional excellence. The program enables the student to work closely with studio faculty in well-designed facilities, become an ambassador of the visual arts in school systems and communities, and enrich their lives with the traditions of the visual arts.

Admission

Applicants must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate School and must be admitted formally by the Department of Art. Applicants must have an undergraduate degree in art and grade point averages (GPA) in art courses of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and must pass review by the Department of Art graduate committee. Each applicant must submit to the Graduate School an application for admission and to the Department of Art:

- a letter expressing goals in pursuing the degree;
- a resume;
- transcripts for all college-level course work;
- a portfolio of artwork (submitted as 20 slides or in CD format);
- three letters of recommendation;
- other supportive materials such as research and publications.

PROGRAMS

Master of Music (MM); Master Of Arts (MA) in Music; Doctor of Arts (DA) In Music; and An Artist Diploma

ARTIST DIPLOMA

The artist diploma is a highly selective non-degree graduate program for the specialized training of the gifted and accomplished performer. The program focuses on the practical aspects of music performance: private instruction solo performance, participation in musical ensembles, chamber music, musicianship skills, and may include nonperformance supportive music courses.

Admission

To be accepted into the artist's diploma program, the applicant must have earned the bachelor's degree from an accredited institution and must have an overall grade point average (GPA) of 2.75 (or 3.0 in the last two years of study).

The successful applicant to the artist's diploma program will present an audition demonstrating a high level of performance ability. All audition requirements will parallel the graduate-level audition requirements used in existing graduate degree programs. A live audition on the Ball State campus is required for unconditional acceptance into the program; however, a recent videotape or compact disc recording may be submitted for conditional acceptance into the program. A student admitted conditionally must perform a live audition before the end of the third week of the first semester of study in order to continue in the program. All diploma students must pass a jury or a recital hearing by the end of the second semester of study. All auditions will be evaluated by faculty from the discipline, the performance area coordinator, and two performance faculty from outside the discipline. The audition committee will be selected by the graduate coordinator and the performance area coordinator.

Degree requirements

	Program Required
Applied Study (MUSPE 600–609, 610–619)	8-12
Career/Performance Seminar (2 credit hours per semester; Special Topics; MUSPE 692)	4
Electives
Courses selected may include: additional applied study, ensemble participation, chamber music, special topics, conducting, diction and literature, pedagogy, improvisation, courses in music technology, courses from music theory or music history and musicology, etc.	8-12
	24 hrs

Recital requirement

Two faculty-adjudicated solo recitals. For voice, the performance of a major opera role or a major performance with orchestra (40–50 minutes of singing) may be substituted for one recital, with permission of the voice faculty. The graduate coordinator and performance area coordinator will appoint a faculty jury to evaluate each performance.

Additional requirements

- Diploma students will be in residence for a minimum of two semesters (residence is defined as a minimum of 8 hours/semester (may include summer).
- All requirements for the diploma must be met within a five-year period.
- Students wishing to take graduate-level courses in theory (MUSTH) or music history (MUHIS) must establish eligibility by passing the theory/history placement tests or successfully completing the review courses.
- No course with a grade below 2.0 can be counted toward the diploma. Diploma students must maintain an overall GPA of 3.0. Students falling below that average will be placed on academic probation and will have one semester in which to bring the GPA up to a 3.0.
- Undergraduate courses may be taken during the course of the diploma program, but will not count toward the required 24 hours of graduate credit.
- No transfer credits from other institutions are allowed.

MASTER OF MUSIC

The master of music (MM) degree requires that at least one-third of the credits be completed in the major field of study. Majors offered are music performance, conducting, woodwinds, piano chamber music/accompanying, piano performance and pedagogy, music history and musicology, music education, music theory, and music composition. The program offers in-depth study for students highly gifted in some facet of music performance, music composition, or research. It is designed for students certified to teach as well as for those who do not have and do not seek such certification. A faculty-approved creative project, recital, or thesis is required of all students. All master of music students are required to pass a comprehensive examination that is administered near the end of the degree program.

Admission

Applicants must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate School and must also be approved by School of Music faculty. Applicants are invited to present on-campus auditions or, when a personal audition is not possible, to send audition tapes. (Conducting applicants must audition in person.) Applicants for academic programs are invited to send research papers, class projects, and compositions, as appropriate. Before enrolling in required course work in music theory and history, applicants must achieve acceptable scores on the graduate placement tests. Students not achieving acceptable scores must complete a review course in theory and/or history.

Degree Requirements

				Program Required
Major area of study in music including credit for a thesis, research paper, or creative project				22-32
Minor, electives in music, and electives				0-8
				30-32 hrs

MASTER OF ARTS IN MUSIC

The requirements for the master of arts (MA) in music include a core of studies in music performance, music history and musicology, music theory, and music education. The degree is designed to meet the needs of students interested in securing broad coverage of the discipline at the graduate level. The elective hours may be used for additional courses in music, for professionalization courses (for certified teachers), or for a minor outside the School of Music. The degree includes a required research component that may take the form of a sequence of research methodology courses, a research project or thesis, or a creative project recital. All master of arts in music students are required to pass a comprehensive examination that is administered near the end of the degree program.

Admission

Applicants must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate School and ordinarily will have majored or minored in music at the undergraduate level. Before enrolling in required course work in music theory and history, applicants must achieve acceptable scores on the graduate placement tests. Students not achieving acceptable scores must complete a review course in theory and/or history.

DOCTOR OF ARTS IN MUSIC

The doctor of arts in music (DA) degree is designed to prepare superior musicians for careers in college teaching. The philosophy of the program is to integrate depth of preparation in one of the traditional disciplines of music with general studies in the remaining fields of music and several supervised teaching experiences at the college level. Graduates will be effective and productive artists and scholars qualified to teach specific music disciplines at the college level and to assume the more diverse responsibilities characteristic of faculty positions at small colleges and universities. The program requires a total of 90 hours of graduate credit beyond the bachelor's degree.

Admission

Applicants must meet the admission requirements of the Graduate School and must also be approved by School of Music faculty. If the proposed area of primary study is performance (including conducting), an on-campus audition is required. If the proposed primary area is in one of the academic disciplines of music, then tapes, scores, research projects, course papers, publications, reviews, and the like are required, as appropriate. Music education applicants must have had a minimum of three years of teaching experience. All applicants will be invited to the School of Music for interviews with the doctoral screening committee. Recent scores from the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) general test as well as letters of professional reference are also required. Before enrolling in required course work in music theory and history, applicants must achieve acceptable scores on the graduate placement tests. Students not achieving acceptable scores must complete a review course in theory and/or history.

Degree Requirements

	Program Required
Area of primary emphasis	24
Area of secondary emphasis	15
Supplementary studies in music	18
College teaching and learning	17
Dissertation	10
Electives	6
	90 hrs

The School of Music core includes foundational course work in music education, music theory, and music history, such as studies in the history and philosophy of music education, principles of music theory, and the history of American music.

The area of primary emphasis may be in music performance, conducting, music theory and composition, or music education. The area of secondary emphasis may be in music performance conducting, music theory and composition, music history and musicology, music education, or outside the School of Music in a subject that relates to the primary field of study.

The area of college teaching and learning includes a college teaching internship and an externship, and courses in such subjects as the role of music in college education, teaching music for the listener, computer applications in music, cognition and learning theory, and foundations of higher education. The dissertation may make an original contribution to knowledge in the primary field, produce innovative teaching materials or methods, or focus on a problem identifiable with college teaching.
