Additional Catering Information

1. Reservations and Notice

To reserve the Studio Room (located near the northeast entrance to AJ), call (765) 285-0016. Please give as much advance notice as possible. Some food items may not be available without at least one week notice.

2. Menu

The menu listed above is offered by The Atrium food court, Art and Journalism Building, Ball State University. If your needs include custom menus and expanded services, these are available through University Catering*, (765) 285-3500.

3. Seating Capacity

The Studio Room seats a maximum of 56 people at round tables seating seven people each. Seatingmay be reduced by display tables, buffet tables, lectern, or other program equipment.

4. Audio-Visual Needs

The Studio features a pull-down screen but no audio-visual equipment or sound system. Please reserve audio-visual equipment through Equipment Projection Service (EPS) at Bracken Library, (765) 285-5327. Lecterns may be reserved through Ball State's Moving and Storage division of Facilities Planning and Management, (765) 285-5072.

5. Rental Charge

There is no charge to reserve the Studio Room for university groups. Guests are requested to dispose of their own trash in the provided trash receptacles and to return tables and chairs to their original placement if guests move them.

6. Disposable Paper/Plastic Products

Appropriate disposable dishware (napkins, plates, flatware, soup cups, straws, etc.) are furnished at no additional cost with the purchase of food items.

7. Charge Approvals Needed

The Business Affairs Office must approve charges to university and foundation accounts in advance.

8. Sales and Local Taxes

A 7% sales tax and a 1% local tax will be added to all sales.

*University Catering will bill for custom food and services per their customary fees and charges if this division of Ball State University Dining caters the event.

We strive to keep published menu pricing current; however, prices are subject to change without notice.
