

'My junior year, I was given an opportunity to direct a show' - Zach Florent

Zach:

I studied abroad my junior year, I went to Greece and Italy, and it was just like, only five weeks, but it was so mind-blowing and so amazing, it basically got me thirsty for more so now hopefully within a few months I'll be doing the same thing except for a longer period of time.

At Ball State, the theatre department here is a fantastic place. I've had a chance in this department to work on acting, directing, script writing, I've produced films, I've worked on stage and screen. I have a pretty diverse education I guess, and equipment to go out in the real world with.

My junior year I was given the opportunity to direct a show, and I worked very hard on that show for a very long time, and I bonded with the cast of the show. And it ended up to be one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. And I walk away from this university with that in mind, with that under my belt and with sort of a new confidence in my abilities that I didn't have before I directed that show.
