Choosing a major? Deciding on a career path? Want to learn more about yourself?

There are stages to every career. The trick is to stay one step ahead. Whether you are an underclassmen trying to explore majors or a senior trying to make sense of potential jobs—make our workshops part of your plan. Each session is led by trained career counselors here to help navigate the process.

Our workshop is intended to help attendees explore:

- The importance of interests and skills
- Our life stories’ impact the process
- Career/major decision-making

When:  Four consecutive Wednesdays from March 25, 2015 - April 15, 2015
Where:  327 Lucina Hall
     Ball State University
Time:  4pm - 5pm
To attend:  Call the support staff at the counseling center to attend. You do not need be a client at the center to participate.

765-285-1736