This Week in Diversity... Now
Monday, February 26, 7:00 PM Pruis Hall
Screening Redefining Prosperity. The film tells the story of how the back-to-the-land movement changed a town and how the fight to save a beautiful river bridged political divides and led to deeper dialogue about sustainability. Join filmmaker John De Graaf, filmmaker for discussion immediately following the screening.

March is Women’s History Month. Started in 1987, Women’s History Month recognizes the valuable contributions of women to history and society.

Live-Beneficence...I see the Beneficence in you
Join us - Show & Share the Beneficence you see in others
Beneficence challenge: Inclusion requires that we increase our self-awareness. Learn more about implicit bias at: https://implicit.harvard.edu/implicit/takeatest.html
Share examples of the Beneficence you see in others – email your nominations to mail to: OID@bsu.edu
Please include your name, the person's name and the way in which they embodied the Beneficence Pledge.

& looking back. This week in Diversity in 2012
Trayvon Martin is shot and killed by George Zimmerman, citing self-defense, Zimmerman is acquitted. Research has documented an increase in murders in Florida since the enactment of "Stand Your Ground" laws.
